MOREY SAINT DENIS

The wines from the village of Morey-St-Denis have depth and power, with a silky texture. They are usually thought of as having the masculinity of Gevrey combined with the elegance of Chambolle depending on which side of the village the vineyard is located. Geologically, these vineyards are very rich in minerals. Great wines from Domaine Dujac, Hubert Lignier, and Laurent Ponsot are giving Morey the recognition it has long merited.

CHAMBOLLE-MUSIGNY

Chambolle has a rich, velvety elegance that rivals the finesse of Vosne-Romanée and the power of Gevrey-Chambertin. The wines are smooth and seductive, with a fragrant, spicy nose. “silk and lace” and “supreme delicacy”. High initial acidity and the impression of elegance that really shows itself in the nose, which, in fine young Chambolles, is particularly redolent of crushed fresh strawberries and liquorice.

VOUGEOT

Cistercian monks established the Grand Cru vineyard Clos de Vougeot in 1100. The Clos’ fifty hectares are now in the hands of 82 different owners. Clos de Vougeot is one of the few Grand Crus where the location of the vines within the vineyard really matters. Best wines show silky Pinot fruit, emphasizing elegant balance and finesse over fullness

VOSNE-ROMANÉE

Perhaps the most representative examples of pinot noir in the world come from this commune. Stylistically the wines lie between the sturdy Gevrey and the Delicate Chambolle-Musigny. These wines are often described as opulent, silky, and satiny. Ultimate Pinot Noir mecca, a hallowed ground that is the home of the most famous vineyards in the world of wine. The wines of this village are noted for their complexity, elegance, and sheer voluptuousness of Pinot Noir fruit.

NUITS-SAINT-GEORGES

Nuit-Saint-Georges is the image of full body, dark fruit flavors and good structure for which the wines of the Cote de Nuits are deservedly famous. They have a distinct spiciness to them, with peppery-red/black fruit flavors. Many tasters characterize nuits as “earthy” and “rustic.” There is often a granular feel about fine young nuits. They might have a touch of the maverick, but the robust charm of leather and gamey flavors are no less alluring.

Due to the soil composition, the wines of Pommard are earthy and minerally. Wines from the best vineyards and in great vintages are aromatic, spicy and very long.

VOLNAY

Volnay is the most charming and delightful commune in the Cote D'Or. The wines are perfumey, soft and have a seductive texture. The wines are noted for their silky-smoothness and finesse, with a beautiful perfume of pure Pinot Noir. The wines have good color, depth and structure, and, like Pommard to the north, age very well.
